

Mills Property Holds Largest Fall Training Meeting

Sioux Falls was the location of this year's annual fall meeting for 22 managers and staff from Mills Property Management Incorporated. This was the largest meeting since the inception of the training event eight years ago. Elizabeth Hagen a Certified Professional Organizer from Sioux Falls spoke to the group about organizing with confidence and time management skills. Elizabeth is a national speaker, mother of five and business owner who shares practical steps to make life less stressful and more productive.

The two day event also focused on training on industry specific software and a review of company growth and future development. Managers representing 16 communities in eastern South Dakota; along with staff from the main office in Brookings also spent time getting acquainted as the company's growth has brought many new faces over the last year.
